REMINDER ABOUT THE NOVEMBER 19 MEETING Cayce Tennis and Fitness Center

FEATURED SPEAKER: RACHEL PARKER VARNER

Rachel Parker Varner, a self-taught watercolor artist, is the featured speaker for the November meeting of CAG. As a YouTube/social media sensation, Rachel shares her experiences in watercolor. Her main goal is to help others learn to watercolor paint loose yet realistic animals (and sometimes other things). Her teaching style is to share successes AND failures, explain the why and not just the what, and have FUN! She enjoys trying new techniques and materials and sharing the results with her students. Although tricky, Rachel believes that watercolor is a skill that ANYONE can learn!

Rachel has received many accolades for her work, having most recently been awarded at the South Carolina Watermedia Society's annual juried exhibition that is being held through November 21 at the Greenville Center for the Creative Arts.

She is a founding member of the Women in Watercolor (WIW) organization and recently served as a judge for the WIW international exhibition.

Attend the November 19 meeting to hear about her remarkable journey and success. Maybe she'll do a demo too!

Message from CAG President, Renea Eshleman

Friends of Art,

Time is a precious commodity and truly zooms! I so appreciate having so many wonderful art friends and opportunities. If the secret to a long life is being busy, I'm rocking it! Please carefully consider participating in several upcoming chances to show your art!

First, of course, is the monthly meeting on November 19. Our guest speaker is watercolor sensation Rachel Parker Varner. You'll enjoy the energy she brings to her audiences. I've heard her speak, and belive me, she's just plain FUN.

December will bring opportunities as well. Note the exhibit at Carolina Arts Café and Studio, 2006 State Street. Jenna Mae Taylor has offered her considerable wall space for CAG members to show their work through the end of December. Review the information shown below.

Also in collaboration with SOTA and Carolina Arts, we will be able to participate in the December 12 Cayce-West Columbia Parade Day. From noon till 4 PM, the Chamber will run a trolly shuttle between Cayce and West Columbia. The shuttle will begin at the Chamber of Commerce on 12th Street and make stops at various destinations including the Cayce Arts District. You'll be able to set up your space at SOTA/2 Stories Studios, or in the parking lots. You'll also need to let me know (803) 767-5505 cayceartsguild@gmail.com whether you will take part in what promises to be an excellent opportunity to be immersed in holiday festivities and share your talents.

Our December 17 meeting will be our annual Christmas celebration. We plan to have the meal catered this year and will provide more information next month. In the meantime, keep an eye out for a gleeful gift for the Naughty Santa Christmas Gift game. It's a tradition we thoroughly enjoy.

Enjoy a thankful thanksgiving!

Refreshments

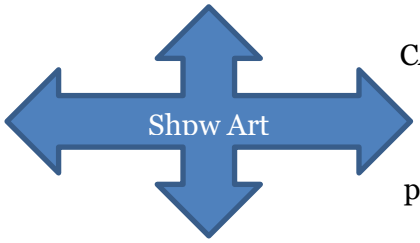

Let Judy Know!

HOSPITALITY!

Judy Sellers facilitates refreshments at our meetings. We love the hospitable atmosphere food gives to our meetings and know you do too. Also, please arrive by 5:50 PM for setup.

Let Judy know if you can contribute an item for snacks. Sweet or savory? Also bring needed serving dishes and utensils.

Contact Judy at JudynWade@aol.com.

CAG members are invited to show their art through December at Carolina Arts, 2006 State Street. If you've not visited, you should! There's plenty of space and a hanging system. Drop by, speak to Jenna Mae or Amanda and see what art you have that fits this excellent venue. Carolina Arts will process sales and retain 30% commission; payouts will happen monthly.
